Expert help when you need it

Accidents can cost serious money. You may be unable to work or have to make changes to your home or lifestyle following an injury.

Windeatts can help get you the compensation you need to make up for injury following all kinds of accidents including those on the road, in the workplace, at home or on holiday.

We work on a 'no win no fee' basis and guarantee that if we take on your case and win, you will receive 100% of your compensation. All our costs will be paid by the other party.

Your initial meeting with us, where we look at your case and decide whether we can make a claim, will be free.

Windeatts offers a local, personal service from lawyers with many years' experience in personal injury law and litigation. Our qualified lawyers will carry out all the work on your case personally, rather than supervising unqualified members of staff. You will receive a top quality and consistent service that you can trust.

We believe face to face meetings and good communication are vital to achieve a positive outcome and you can only do this by choosing a local firm.

You will have the same lawyer throughout your case, who will keep you up to date with developments. And you can pop in and see them when it suits you, which is crucial at what can be a stressful time.

Following reforms to rules governing compensation for road traffic accidents Windeatts uses a new online portal designed by lawyers and insurers to make claims faster and more efficient. Where you are not at fault, we can act fast and you should receive your full compensation in months rather than years.

If you have a legal expenses insurance policy, please be aware that you can choose any lawyer to take on your case – you do not have to choose one nominated by your insurers who may be located far away and who you may never meet.

If you think you might have a case, please drop in and have a chat. Personal, local service at no cost to you.
